Nitro Games announced new game Heroes of Warland

Nitro Games takes competitive multiplayer on mobile to a new level with “Heroes of Warland” set for release in 2018.

“We are thrilled to announce Heroes of Warland. Our team is taking competitive multiplayer on mobile to a new level with this game. There’s a good market opportunity for a team based competitive multiplayer game on mobile right now. Our hero based class system is a unique new thing in the emerging shooter genre on mobile and helps us to build better team gameplay.” says Jussi Tähtinen, CEO & Co-Founder, Nitro Games Oyj.

This launch follows Nitro Games’ strategy where the company is building a portfolio of games to be self-published in the western markets and accessing other markets via publishing partners. Heroes of Warland is the second game in Nitro Games’ new portfolio, following Medals of War that was introduced last year. It has been developed with Nitro Games’ MVP –process, where the game development is closely tied to continuously collecting actual market data and community feedback, as the game is being further developed. This announcement is the first step in the game launch in western markets. After this announcement, the game will soon enter the so-called public soft launch in selected markets. The commercial hard launch is targeted for 2018 after the soft launch.

Heroes of Warland is a team-based competitive multiplayer game on mobile. With Heroes of Warland, Nitro Games is introducing hero-based shooter game on mobile for the first time. This genre has been highly popular on PC. Hero-based shooter means that the game has several hero characters, each with own unique skills and abilities, offering a unique and fun team multiplayer experience previously unseen on mobile.
