Announcing theHunter: Mobile

Nitro Games and Expansive Worlds AB (“Avalanche Studios Group”) announce the title theHunter: Mobile and the starting of the soft-launch period.

theHunter: Mobile is a free-to-play game based on the successful theHunter franchise by Expansive Worlds. In theHunter: Mobile, players experience a immersive hunting experience in vast open-world environments, for the first time on mobile devices.

“We are big fans of theHunter franchise here at Nitro Games and this game is a perfect fit for our focus and expertise in shooter games. We want to honor the IP while making the experience accessible for the mobile audience. The big open-world environments are pushing the limits on mobile, utilizing our technical expertise.” says Jussi Tähtinen, CEO & Co-Founder of Nitro Games Oyj.

“We’re intrigued about testing our highly successful theHunter franchise at the next level of its lifecycle, expand its footprint and reaching an even wider audience, making it available for our current community and fans wherever they are.” says Jonas Wähländer, Managing Director of Expansive Worlds.

Nitro Games is now operating soft-launch for theHunter: Mobile as a service to Expansive Worlds. The purpose of the soft launch is to measure the game performance and marketability in selected territories, while the development of the game is being finalized.
