Change to Essity's Executive Management Team

Donato Giorgio, President Global Supply Chain and member of the Executive Management Team, will leave Essity.

Donato Giorgio joined Essity in 2009 and has held various leadership positions within Essity's global manufacturing and supply chain. In 2015 he became a member of the Executive Management Team and under his leadership, the company has developed its sustainable manufacturing and circular resource solutions.

"Donato Giorgio has been a strong force behind Essity's transformation in global supply chain excellence. I would like to thank Donato for his contributions to Global Supply Chain and to Essity and wish him all the best in his future endeavors", says Ulrika Kolsrud, President and CEO, Essity.

Donato Giorgio will leave his position October 31, 2025. The recruitment process for his successor has been initiated.
