Yaytrade signs an agreement with NK Studio for the sale of outgoing stock

Ytrade Group AB (publ) ("Yaytrade" or the "Company") has today entered into an agreement with Gents Wear Group AB ("NK Studio") regarding the sale of outgoing stock.

NK Studio, a well-established premium store located in the Nordiska Kompaniet department store in Stockholm, has entered into a partnership with Yaytrade for the sale of outgoing stock via Yaytrade's marketplace and digital pop-up solution.

"We've been active in the clothing industry for many years through production, sales agency operations, and retail activities. We have various locations including the NK Studio shop in the 'NK' department store. We therefore have stock from several exclusive and well-known brands and during the current pandemic it has been difficult for us to find a suitable way to activate this stock. Yaytrade has provided us with an opportunity to reach our customers in a risk-free and sustainable way. Yaytrade offers a solution that simplifies the management of inventory and clearance sales," says Celine Aflalo Johansson, CEO Gents Wear Group AB.

"We're delighted with this partnership, which clearly demonstrates Yaytrade's position its impact on the market. We are moving more and more towards becoming the obvious choice when it comes to digital clearance sales. NK Studio will bring a range of premium products from a variety of international premium brands," says David Knape, CEO Ytrade Group AB (publ).

The first NK Studio sale is expected to release on Yaytrade in September 2021.
