

Staffan Haglund will assume the position as CEO of VSM Entreprenad AB in February 2020

VSM Entreprenad AB has shown strong growth the past few years and in order to best utilize the potential in the market, Staffan Haglund has been recruited as new CEO. Staffan Haglund most recently comes from a role as business unit manager at Märsta Förenade Åkeriföretag AB. Magnus Persson will continue to have a large operational responsibility as deputy CEO of VSM.

Staffan Haglund is a trained engineer and has a long experience in the construction industry. He started his career at the Swedish Road Administration, now Svevia, and has for Märsta Förenade the last 12 years.

”Magnus Persson has been the CEO of VSM for 20 years and now is the right time to strengthen the organization to be able to meet the market growth we have ahead of us, and also to strengthen our position in the industry. We are happy that Staffan has chosen to join VSM to help us develop the company further”, says Håkan Lind, CEO of Bellman Group AB.

When Staffan Haglund assumes the position as CEO of VSM, he will also become a member of Bellman Group’s Group management.

For more information, please contact:

Håkan Lind, CEO
hakan@bellmangroup.se
+46 (0)70 669 80 28

Pia Rosin, head of IR and communication
pia.rosin@bellmangroup.se
+46 (0)70 971 12 70

About Bellman Group

Bellman Group is a construction group that operates in rock blasting, soil removal, transport and mass handling in Sweden, primarily in the Stockholm and Gothenburg regions. The Group consists of Bellmans, which is a transport company, Uppländska, which performs blasting operations, VSM, which carries out excavation work with large machinery, and Samgräv, which is active in transport, mass handling and landfills.

In 2018 the Group sales were SEK 1.6 billion (pro forma*). The Bellman Group, with registered offices in Solna, Sweden, has approximately 400 employees and 900 subcontractors. The Group’s corporate bonds are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm and the principal owner is Verdane Capital. Bellman Group is a group with an explicit acquisition strategy. www.bellmangroup.se