

Ine Dolve appointed SVP Operations & Asset Development in Aker BP

Ine Dolve has been appointed SVP Operations & Asset Development in Aker BP. She will be part of the Executive Management Team. Dolve comes from a position as VP Operations and Asset Development for Skarv in Aker BP. Dolve holds a degree from NHH in Bergen, and has a Master in International Management from ESADE in Barcelona. Further, Dolve holds a degree from The Royal Naval Academy.

- Ine has made a tremendous effort as responsible for Skarv. She has shown a good ability to implement systematic improvements over time, and by that contributed to significant value creation for the company. Her very good ability to lead and motivate will be important for the phase we as a company will go through in the time ahead, says CEO Kalle Hersvik.

Kjetel Digre, who currently holds the position, has been appointed CEO of Aker Solutions.

- I would like to take this opportunity to thank Kjetel for his time at Aker BP. With his broad experience from the industry, he has contributed to developing the operating organization in Aker BP significantly during the period he has been with us. I look forward to a continued good collaboration in the future in his new role in Aker Solutions.

The changes will take effect immediately.
