A Title Developed by Antimatter Games Sells More Than 1 Million Copies

Antimatter Games, a subsidiary of EG7, receives a significant bonus milestone payment as Rising Storm: 2 Vietnam has sold in excess of 1 million copies.

Rising Storm 2: Vietnam, a title for which Antimatter Games were the main developers has sold more than 1 million copies and a significant bonus milestone payment has therefore been paid out.

Antimatter Games is currently working on several EG7 titles, most notably Project I.G.I and '83.

Comment from Robin Flodin, CEO of EG7:

"We are happy and proud to receive yet another quality stamp, further proof that Antimatter Games is a very capable studio."
