

Tokmanni opens a new store in Naantali

Tokmanni's store network in Southwest Finland will be complemented by two new locations. The Tokmanni stores in Naantali and Kemiönsaari will open in renovated retail spaces later this year.

Tokmanni has agreed on a long-term lease for approximately 2,500 square meters of retail space at Venekuja 5 in Naantali. The new Tokmanni store is expected to open in these premises around November 2025.

The new Tokmanni store in Naantali will be located in a very central location and will be easily accessible to customers.

“Tokmanni has been looking for a suitable retail space in Naantali for a long time. Our goal is to offer Tokmanni's diverse and affordable selection of non-groceries and groceries for the permanent residents and second-home owners in Naantali before the end of this year”, says Harri Koponen, Vice President, Store Network and Concept at Tokmanni.

The owner of the property at Venekuja in Naantali will renovate and modernise the retail space during the coming autumn, after which the premises will be handed over to Tokmanni for the construction and opening of the new store. The Tokmanni store in Naantali is expected to employ approximately 15 retail professionals.

Tokmanni will also open a new store in Kemiönsaari, Southwest Finland, at Wuorionkuja 4, Kemiönsaari. This opening was announced in a press release published on 2 June 2025.
