The Swedish discount retailer Dollarstore, which is owned by Finnish Tokmanni Group, has entered into agreements on opening three new stores in Sweden and one in Denmark by the end of this year. In Sweden, the new Dollarstore stores will be opened in Erikslund in Västerås, in Gamlestaden in Gothenburg (Göteborg), and in Lycksele. In Denmark, the Big Dollar store in question will be opened in Skive. In addition to these stores, Dollarstore plans to open other new stores by the end of this year. Tokmanni also plans to open several new stores in Finland.

In Erikslund in Västerås, the new store will be opened by the end of September this year. The store will have around 4,050 square metres of space, which is more than a typical Dollarstore store. Thanks to the large store premises, the product assortment in Erikslund will be very diverse, with a particular focus on home renovation, for example. In Västerås, Dollarstore will open another store by the end of this year. As previously announced in 2024, a new Dollarstore store will open this year in Hälla.
