

Gabriel Catrina, NENT Group's CFO, has passed away

After a short period of illness, Gabriel Catrina, our EVP & Chief Financial Officer and Head of Strategy & M&A, has passed away.

Condolences from Anders Jensen, our President & CEO:

“Gabriel’s contribution to our company has been immense, as a professional of course, and maybe even more so as a warm and caring colleague. Working with Gabriel over these past years has been one of the greatest privileges of my professional life and I shall miss him every day going forward. It is so very painful and incredibly difficult to take in, that someone who was so alive and full of energy just a few days ago has now left us. Our thoughts go to his wife, his children and the rest of his family and close friends.”

Books of condolence will be placed in the reception of all our offices.
