

A Brand New Luxury Room With A View In Tanzania

The boutique, southern Tanzania safari camp Beho Beho is offering a brand new private villa for the 2012-13 season and specialist operator Africa Odyssey is giving a 10 per cent discount on stays throughout 2012. Named Bailey's Banda, the two-bedroom property will perch on a hillside overlooking the very best views of the Selous Game Reserve.

With an uninterrupted view of the valley and hippo pools below, this lavish villa boasts an unparalleled private experience, with plenty of open-spaced dining and relaxing areas as well as a plunge pool and sunbathing/game-viewing deck. With dedicated staff, its own kitchen (complete with chef), exclusive safari vehicle and boat, guests who want to appreciate the bush without the 'camaraderie' of staying in a 'home-style' camp like Beho Beho will find Bailey's Banda the perfect hideaway.

Africa Odyssey (www.africaodyssey.com / 020 7471 8780) is offering the chance to stay in Bailey's Banda from £4,200 per person (saving £466). Based on four sharing and available for travel throughout 2012 (excluding Christmas), the price includes flights from Heathrow, internal transfers and four nights' accommodation on a full-board basis as well as park entrance fees.
