

Be in the Next QuiBids Commercial

QuiBids hosts a video contest to search for a customer to be in its next commercial.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK— QuiBids is hosting a Video Contest throughout the month of July where customers have the chance to be in their next commercial. The contest started in early June and is set to end August 1, 2013.

In the contest, participants are asked to submit a :30 video explaining what they have won and why they enjoy using QuiBids. The winner will be flown out to the next commercial shoot and the contestant with the best video will win an Apple iPad. The best video submissions are those that are well-lit with customers showing their personality, are upbeat and easy to follow. QuiBids is all about fun and continues to come up with ways to connect with its customers. "We wouldn't be where we are today without our customers," said Jill Merritt, QuiBids' Director of Public Relations. "That's simply another reason why we want to feature our customers. There are so many who have a great story to tell and we want everyone to hear about their experience."

QuiBids current commercial explains how QuiBids works and features a customer who won multiple products at great prices. Amazing deals happen on QuiBids every day and it's time to feature additional customers to show off their real-life stories.
