

Ranplan Group AB (publ) appoints John Watson as new CFO

Following an extensive process Ranplan has recently recruited John Watson, who will succeed Chris Caswell as the CFO of the Group, effective 1 July 2019. Chris Caswell will support John Watson for a transition period and will then retire.

“We thank Chris Caswell for his services in the past few years, which has allowed the Company to list its shares on Nasdaq First North in June 2018, and express our satisfaction that we have managed to bring such a seasoned professional as John Watson onboard”, says Alastair Williamson, CEO of Ranplan Group AB.

John Watson qualified as a Chartered Accountant (Admitted to ICAS in 1991) and spent several years in CA practice before moving into industry.

Between 2000 and 2015, John was UK Group Finance Director of IFG Group PLC, which includes the UK’s leading self-administered pension provider James Hay, and Saunderson House Ltd, one of London’s most prestigious financial and wealth managers specialising in advising Ultra High Net Worth individuals.

Prior to this, John worked in the Hotel & Leisure sector between 1994 and 2000, spending the last four years with global hotel group Marriott International as European Group Financial Controller for one of its two European divisions.

Between 2015 and 2016 John was COO of the regulated part of Equiniti plc.

Since 2016, John has been CEO of CFO & More and also holds several non-executive directorships initiated.
