About Risk Intelligence and the share issue

Risk Intelligence was founded in 2001 by Hans Tino Hansen. The company has developed into a prominent company within security risk management, with a scalable business model that generates recurring revenue. Risk Intelligence provides an in-depth analysis of existing and future threats to enable its clients to plan, assess and perform their operations in hotspots across the world. Through the company's digital platform, a comprehensive global view of real time environment risks for maritime, port and terminal areas is presented. The risk analysis includes insurgency, piracy, organized crime, terrorism, military conflicts and the interplay between them. The Risk Intelligence System (MaRisk+PortRisk) highlights where serious events arise and present an assessment of the level of risk in each area to allow companies, in one system, to easily evaluate risk. Intelligence data is collected from direct local sources, on-site-analysts and from a major international intelligence network.

The company has decided to raise 12 MDKK to finance a number of growth initiatives, including the next step in the development and launch of the LandRisk module in the Risk Intelligence System. Risk Intelligence will thus cover the entire logistic chain (MaRisk + PortRisk + LandRisk).

CEO and founder Hans Tino Hansen:

"We have a well-functioning concept of services and products that minimizes the client's exposure to risk and streamlines operational reliability. By combining dynamic and comprehensive collection of intelligence with our proprietary technology, analysis and assessment, we have become a globally recognized market leader in security intelligence. By including the LandRisk module, the Risk Intelligence System will be able to serve the entire logistics industry. With our technology, infrastructure and global data-sourcing well in place and the inclusion of LandRisk, which is a market 20 times larger than our existing markets combined."
