Risk Intelligence A/S signs significant license agreement for the Risk Intelligence System with the U.S. Navy's Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Pacific

Risk Intelligence A/S ("Risk Intelligence") announces today that the company has signed an API license agreement for the Risk Intelligence System (MaRisk+PortRisk) with the U.S. Navy's Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Pacific ("SSC Pacific") with a value of 219,500 USD. The significant order follows an initial order and pilot project in 2017 for integration of the Risk Intelligence System into a U.S. Navy Maritime Domain Awareness (MDA) software suite

SSC Pacific based in San Diego, is the United States Navy technical authority and acquisition command for C4ISR (Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance), business information technology and space systems. For more information please see https://www.public.navy.mil/spawar/Pages/default.aspx

Hans Tino Hansen, CEO of Risk Intelligence

"The contract with SPAWAR SSC Pacific is a significant contract for Risk Intelligence and proves that Risk Intelligence provides high quality maritime security intelligence analysis to both government and private clients. The contract will have a positive impact on turnover in 2018" states Hans Tino Hansen, CEO of Risk Intelligence.
