

Risk Intelligence A/S signs significant maritime security intelligence contract with Norient Product Pool

Risk Intelligence A/S ("Risk Intelligence") announces today that the company has signed a significant agreement with Norient Product Pool ApS "Norient Product Pool" for the Risk Intelligence System (MaRisk+PortRisk), as well as bespoke services designed to support their maritime security preparedness activities globally. Approx. 30% of the contract will have positive impact on the turnover in 2018.

Norient Product Pool is a limited company registered in Denmark and owned 50/50 by the founding partners, Interorient Shipmanagement and Dampskibsselskabet NORDEN A/S. Norient Product Pool commercially manages product tankers from 25,000 to 55,000 tonnes deadweight, trading worldwide.

"Risk Intelligence is a global and proven provider of maritime intelligence and we look forward to work closely with the company going forward" states Flemming Dahl Jensen, CSO of Dampskibsselskabet NORDEN A/S.

"Our new agreement with one of the world's leading product tanker pools underlines our ambition to be a trusted security partner to our clients, to proactively discuss and advise clients on security-related activities that may support commercial opportunities wherever they decide to trade" states Jan Michelsen, Sales Director of Risk Intelligence.

The parties have agreed not to disclose the value of the contract.
