

Risk Intelligence A/S signs an agreement for the Risk Intelligence System with the NYK Group

Risk Intelligence A/S ("Risk Intelligence" or "the Company") announces today that the company has signed an agreement with the Nippon Yusen Kabushiki Kaisha - NYK Group ("NYK") for the Risk Intelligence System (MaRisk+PortRisk).

NYK is a leader in global marine transport, listed on the stock exchange in Tokyo, Japan and one of the largest shipowners in the World. The company was founded in 1885, and today NYK operates and owns more than 800 vessels. NYK operate in all major segments of the shipping market including containerships, tankers, bulk and woodchip carriers, Ro-Ro car carriers, LNG carriers and cruise ships.

Hans Tino Hansen, CEO of Risk Intelligence says:

"We know NYK has a strong focus on security for their crew, vessels and entire supply chain and we are therefore proud that they have selected Risk Intelligence as one of their partners to assist them to do their global threat and risk assessments. The new agreement with NYK also marks our entrance into the important Japanese market and underlines our ability to build close client relationships with leading players across Asia. A capability that we enhanced with the opening of our Singapore office last year."

With access to the Risk Intelligence System, NYK will be joining many other shipping companies, operating world-wide, that are assessing threats and risks based on intelligence and in-depth assessments from Risk Intelligence. Today, the fleet operated by Risk Intelligence clients is 14.7% of the global merchant fleet in international traffic.

The parties have agreed not to disclose the value of the contract.
