

Risk Intelligence A/S signs agreement with major Hamburg-based container line operator for the new Risk Intelligence System.

Risk Intelligence A/S ("Risk Intelligence" or "the Company") signs agreement with major Hamburg-based container line operator ("the Client") for the new Risk Intelligence System.

MaRisk continues to lead the way in maritime intelligence platforms into 2024. The new Risk Intelligence System has attracted a major container line operator as soon as the year has begun. The Client will have access, not only to Risk Intelligence's peerless analysis but also automated notifications, AIS fleet tracking, Voyage Intelligence tool and the ability to monitor sanctions all on one System.

The Client operates over 100 vessels globally and has a well-developed security function who has selected Risk Intelligence as their intelligence partner to support them. They have already started receiving a tailored portfolio of intelligence updates and reports, addressing the various challenges that they face in their global operations.

Jim Pascoe, Chief Commercial Officer of Risk Intelligence says:

"It is great news to welcome such a prestigious new client to Risk Intelligence services, bringing in the New Year with a firm endorsement of our new System and analysis products. Whilst we have been focused on on-boarding our existing clients to the new features we have also had significant interest from new and potential clients."

"The fourth generation of MaRisk takes the Risk Intelligence system to a new level, providing operational support to shipping companies across a range of functions – it was this versatility backed up by the quality of analysis provided by subject matter experts that convinced the client to join those other liner operators who enjoy the benefits of Risk Intelligence services."

The deal will impact ARR from Q1 2024.

About Risk Intelligence

Risk Intelligence is a security risk intelligence provider delivering security threat and risk analysis to clients all over the world via the cloud-based Risk Intelligence System, as well as consulting services. A large part of Risk Intelligence's clients is maritime, and these clients currently operate more than 15.7% of the global merchant fleet.

With its headquarters in Hellerup (Copenhagen), Denmark, an office in Singapore, and locations in North America, the dedicated staff of Risk Intelligence works in all major time zones to support their clients' operations. Since 2018, the company has been listed on the Spotlight Stock Exchange in Stockholm.

The Risk Intelligence System is a digital security intelligence solution developed in close collaboration with global businesses that are established within the fields of shipping, offshore, oil and gas. The digital solution is designed based on insights directly from customers and their needs as well as Risk Intelligence's experienced security risk analysts and developers' knowledge of intelligence and assessment needs.

The Risk Intelligence System offers clients a complete picture of immediate, short-, and medium-term security risks for coastal areas, ocean, port, and landside threats. The analysis is focused on insurgency, piracy, organised crime, activism, terrorism, military conflicts, and any interplay between these. Risk Intelligence identifies where serious events arise and presents an assessment of how great the threat is in each area, while at the same time providing 24/7/365 situational awareness with incident reports and alerts. This enables companies to evaluate both current and future security risks in real time and to minimise risks across their operations.

Disclaimer:

Risk Intelligence typically uses press releases to announce new clients or significant expansions of existing client contracts, in accordance with the wishes of those clients. However, there may be other business deals that Risk Intelligence chooses not to or cannot disclose through press releases. All deals classified as MAR will always be announced through press releases.
