

Safeture partnering with Falck Global Assistance & Aeger Group wins agreement with Innovation Norway

Safeture in partnership with Falck Global Assistance & Aeger Group has secured a two-year public procurement agreement regarding employee safety and travel risk management for Innovation Norway.

Established in 2004, Innovation Norway is a state-owned company that offers capital, programs, and services to strengthen and stimulate entrepreneurship, innovation, and sustainable growth for Norwegian businesses and industry. Headquartered in Oslo, Norway, Innovation Norway has more than 700 employees in eleven counties in Norway and more than 30 countries worldwide. Together with its partner, Falck Global Assistance & Aeger Group, Safeture won the two-year procurement, including Safeture solutions such as Facilities, Travel Management Company Integration, and the Crisis Management Module.

"As an employer with several hundred employees around the world, this agreement provides Innovation Norway with access to Safeture's unique platform for managing employee safety, medical and security assistance, no matter where they are. The agreement also shows that our business model - which is based on collaboration with leading partners such as Falck Global Assistance & Aeger Group - works well," says Magnus Hultman, CEO of Safeture.

"Safeture's platform is an excellent tool to ensure duty of care and enhance situational awareness and readiness," says Klaus A. Trapp, Head of Security Innovation Norway.
