

Safeture Expands TMC Network with Selective Travel Management

Safeture, the leading SaaS platform for travel risk and employee safety, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Selective Travel Management (STM) UK-based Travel Management Company with global reach.

Through this partnership, STM will incorporate Safeture into its TMC service offering. Organizations collaborating with STM can access a unified solution that integrates travel risk management directly into their TMC workflow, boosting visibility, responsiveness, and operational resilience.

This partnership signifies another important milestone in Safeture's ongoing growth of its Travel Management Company network. As demand for integrated travel-risk solutions continues to grow, Safeture is forming alliances with TMCs to deliver scalable, technology-enabled duty-of-care services across various client sectors. The agreement with STM underscores Safeture's commitment to enhancing global traveler protection through TMC partnerships.

In a world where mobility is stronger than ever and the risk landscape is becoming increasingly complex, Safeture remains committed to providing platforms that enable travel-risk professionals and TMC operators to work smoothly together. By partnering with STM, Safeture expands its ability to support organizations managing high-volume, multi-region travel programs with the safety standards and efficiency they need.
