

PolarCool Secures Another Agreement in Slovak Ice Hockey

Med-tech company PolarCool AB (publ.) has signed its second agreement in Slovakia's top ice hockey league, the Tipos Extraliga, with HKM Zvolen.

Following its recent agreement with HC Košice, PolarCool has intensified discussions with additional clubs across the league. The Tipos Extraliga comprises twelve teams and is one of Central Europe's leading professional ice hockey leagues.

PolarCool's CEO Erik Andersson comments:

- We are very pleased that HKM Zvolen has chosen to implement PolarCap®. We are seeing growing interest in PolarCap® across the Slovak market, and player safety is being increasingly prioritized within professional ice hockey. We look forward to continued establishment in the Slovak ice hockey league and in European ice hockey overall.

Today, PolarCool has established a strong customer base within European professional ice hockey, with teams using PolarCap® across several leading leagues, including Sweden, Germany, Switzerland, Finland, Austria, Czech Republic and the United Kingdom.

The agreement with HKM Zvolen is strategically important for PolarCool and represents another step in the company's continued European expansion.
