BIMobject CEO Carl Silbersky buys 1 million shares from BIMobject founder

Today, BIMobject announces that CEO Carl Silbersky has bought 1 million shares from Procedural Labs AB, which is wholly-owned by BIMobject founder Stefan Larsson.

Carl Silbersky acquires the shares through his company Grey Herring AB. After the transaction his total holdings correspond to nearly 1% of the company's total number of shares. Procedural Lab AB's total holdings after the transaction amounts to 8,891,800 shares, corresponding to 7.4% of the total number of shares. The agreed price is based on the average share price during the last 30 days of trading, and amounts to SEK 8.5 per share.

EQT and the Board have agreed to the transaction in writing, and refrain from the 24 month lock up agreement, which was signed with Procedural Labs on 2018-07-09 in conjunction with EQT's investment of SEK 240 million in BIMobject.

"It's extremely important to get our new CEO Carl Silbersky on-board as shareholder, and this investment clearly shows his confidence in the company and its future" says Stefan Larsson, Founder and interim President of BIMobject's subsidiary in North America.

"The company is in a phase of strong growth and good momentum, and in the long-run, BIMobject is fantastic company to own. I want to own shares in the company that I manage", says Carl Silbersky, CEO of BIMobject.

This information is information that BIMobject AB (publ) is obliged to publish in accordance the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was provided by Carl Silbersky for publication on 2 December 2019 at 21.00 CET.
