Henrik Blomé appointed Deputy CEO at Ratos

Henrik Blomé has been appointed as Deputy CEO at Ratos. Henrik will also continue to work with Ratos's holdings as an Investment Director and to head part of the investment organisation.

Henrik Blomé has worked at Ratos with investments and with responsibility for holdings since 2010. Henrik is currently responsible for Ratos's holdings Bisnode, DIAB and HENT and previously worked with the holdings GS-Hydro, Hägglunds Drives and MCC among many others. Henrik has an MSc Econ degree and previously worked as a management consultant at Bain & Company.

“Henrik has during his 14 years at Ratos, with his commitment and broad expertise within company development, made a strong contribution to the favourable development of many of our holdings. He is also an appreciated leader and in this new role he will continue to play a key part in the further development of Ratos,” says Ratos's CEO Susanna Campbell.

Henrik Blomé will also continue to work as an Investment Director and be a member of Group management. In addition to Henrik Blomé, Bo Jungner is also a Deputy CEO with responsibility for finance, administration and compliance.
