

Changes in Ratos's management group

Ratos is carrying out changes in its management group, meaning that it will now consist of:

Jonas Wiström, CEO

Helene Gustafsson, Head of IR and Press

Henrik Lundh, Vice President (new member since January 2019)

Anders Slettengren, Vice President

Magnus Stephensen, General Counsel

Peter Wallin, CFO (new member since December 2018)

Robin Molvin, Vice President and previous member of the management group, and Johan Rydmark, Director, are leaving Ratos. Meanwhile, Henrik Lundh has been appointed as Vice President and member of the management group.

"I look forward to welcoming Henrik Lundh as a member of Ratos's management group, where I'm sure that his experience and knowledge will be of immense benefit in the future.

I want to extend a sincere thanks to Robin Molvin, whose important work with several of our portfolio companies throughout his many years here at Ratos has created significant value. Over the years, Robin has strengthened and assumed responsibility for Ratos's presence in Denmark, which was the driving factor behind the acquisition of airteam and Oase Outdoors. At airteam, Robin has led the company's growth journey and expansion into Sweden through strategic bolt-on acquisitions.

I also want to thank Johan Rydmark, whose previous investment responsibilities at the portfolio companies Nebula and Serena, and previous operational development of portfolio companies such as Stofa, have created important value for Ratos", says Jonas Wiström, CEO of Ratos.

The changes will take effect as of today, 17 January 2019.
