Jonas Ågrup appointed CFO of Ratos

Jonas Ågrup, who was the acting CFO of Ratos since February 2020, will take over the position on a permanent basis on 1 October. Peter Wallin will thus step down from his position as CFO but will remain as Executive Chairman of the Ratos company HENT.

Before Jonas Ågrup assumed the position of acting CFO of Ratos, he was CFO of Munters. Previous positions also include CFO of ÅF/AFRY. Peter Wallin will resign as CFO of Ratos but will remain as the Executive Chairman of HENT.

“I would like to thank Peter Wallin, who as CFO contributed to Ratos’s development through a new governance model and by creating the Ratos Business Areas. Peter also contributed to the positive development of the Construction & Services Business Area during his time as Head of the Business Area. Peter is now withdrawing from all assignments at Ratos but will continue as Executive Chairman of HENT,” says Jonas Wiström, CEO of Ratos.

About Ratos:

Ratos is a business group consisting of 12 companies divided into three business areas: Construction & Services, Consumer & Technology and Industry. In total, the companies have SEK 38 billion in sales and EBITA of SEK 1.8 billion. Our business concept is to develop mid-sized companies headquartered in the Nordics that are or can become market leaders. We enable independent mid-sized companies to excel by being part of something larger. People, leadership, culture and values are key focus areas for Ratos. Everything we do is based on Ratos’s core values: Simplicity, Speed in Execution and It’s All About People.
