INVISIO receives order from an existing customer in the US Department of Defense

INVISIO (IVSO) has received an order for its communication and hearing protection systems valued at approximately SEK 29 million from an existing customer in the US Department of Defense. Delivery is scheduled over the next two quarters.

A US Department of Defense agency has placed another order for approximately SEK 29 million to continue equipping soldiers with INVISIO communications and hearing protection equipment.

INVISIO's soldier system is a combination of highly advanced Headsets and Control Units, that are easy to use and well-proven in the field. The integrated system is designed to protect the hearing of soldiers on the battlefield, while allowing them also to maintain situational awareness and effectively communicate through their radios and intercom systems.
