Nustay enters partnership agreement with Methabook

Today, Nustay A/S (“Nustay”) announces that the company has entered into a distribution agreement with Methabook (“Methabook”) regarding inclusion of their full inventory of approx. 189,000 hotels and other similar properties on Nustay’s hotel booking platform. Methabook is a Dubai-based B2B supplier. The agreement was signed in June 3rd, 2019 and will be ongoing until further notice.

CEO Mathias Lundoe Nielsen comments:

“I am happy to announce this new agreement with Methabook. They are a major player on the B2B hotel supplier market in the Middle East with a world-wide portfolio of accommodations. Furthermore, they are also an innovative tech company and I believe that both companies will benefit from this collaboration going forward.”

About Methabook:

Methabook is based on a brand-new concept of central booking. The initial idea was put into practice eleven years ago and the company is determined to expand it abroad. The company is growing in numbers, currently providing over 189,375 hotels worldwide. They range from cheap accommodation in remote places to the best-known resorts in exotic destinations.
