

Erika Ståhl appointed as new CFO of Beijer Alma

Erika Ståhl has been appointed as the new CFO of Beijer Alma. Bringing extensive experience of international industry, she will join the Group from the listed company Dometic Group. Erika Ståhl will succeed Jan Blomén, who plans to retire during the year.

Erika Ståhl will take office as CFO in August 2020 at the latest. She is 49 years old and holds a master's degree in business administration from Jönköping University. She has served as Head of Group Business Control at Dometic Group since 2013. Prior to that, she held various positions, including 12 years in different controller roles within the Electrolux Group.

“We are delighted to welcome Erika Ståhl to Beijer Alma. The Group will continue its journey of growth through both acquisitions and organic growth. Erika is the right person to support this work. She has extensive experience of international industry in a listed environment,” says Beijer Alma's President and CEO, Henrik Perbeck.

“Beijer Alma is a successful, international industrial group with dedicated shareholders, and I look forward to being part of the Group's continued development,” says Erika Ståhl.

Jan Blomén has had a long career at Beijer Alma, having first started as CFO and Controller back in 1987.

“On behalf of the Board and all of our colleagues, I would like to thank Jan Blomén for his outstanding contribution over the years. During Jan's 33 years at Beijer Alma, the Group has grown from a regional investment company into a global industrial group,” says Henrik Perbeck.

Jan Blomén is currently on sick leave. Anders Karlström is serving as Acting CFO in his absence.
