U.S. court issues decision in Trintellix patent litigation upholding active ingredient patent

Valby, Denmark, 1 October 2021 - H. Lundbeck A/S (Lundbeck) announces that the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware (the 'Court') has issued its decision upholding the validity of Lundbeck's patent covering the active ingredient in Trintellix, vortioxetine (U.S. Patent No. 7,144,884) in patent litigation proceedings against six generic manufacturers challenging Lundbeck's patent rights to Trintellix (vortioxetine) in the U.S.

Lundbeck and its partner, Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited (Takeda), filed the infringement actions against the six generic manufacturers Alembic, Lupin, Macleods, Sandoz, Sigmapharm, and Zydus (each referred to as an 'ANDA Filer' and collectively as the 'ANDA Filers') in response to their filing of Abbreviated New Drug Applications (the 'Filed ANDAs') with the FDA seeking to obtain marketing approval for generic versions of vortioxetine in the U.S.

Lundbeck and Takeda asserted a total of eight Lundbeck patents, namely U.S. Patent No. 7,144,884 (the '884 Patent') covering the active ingredient in Trintellix, vortioxetine, and seven other U.S. patents, which cover, inter alia, specific forms of vortioxetine, methods of using vortioxetine, and manufacturing processes for vortioxetine (collectively, the 'Other U.S. Patents').

The Court's ruling on the '884 Patent

The Court found that the '884 Patent is valid. The '884 Patent expires on 17 June 2026, with an expected six-month pediatric exclusivity period extending to 17 December 2026. Assuming the ruling is affirmed on potential appeal, final approval will not be granted to the relevant ANDAs until after expiration of the '884 Patent, including any extensions or additional periods of exclusivity.

The Court's ruling on the Other U.S. Patents

The Court's ruling on the validity and infringement of the Other U.S. Patents (and the '884 Patent) is summarized below. The Court's decision, which is subject to appeal, prohibits final regulatory approval of any of the six Filed ANDAs found to infringe a valid Other U.S. Patent(s) until after expiry of that patent. Unless and until the Court's ruling is reversed on appeal, the patents found not infringed by a particular ANDA Filer will not prevent that ANDA Filer from receiving final approval.

U.S. Patent No.	Expiry date*	Court decision on validity of the patent	Court decision on infringement
8,476,279	2 October 2022	Valid	Patent only challenged by Sigmapharm and Zydus. Infringement not disputed.
9,090,575	2 October 2022	Valid	Patent only asserted against Zydus. Infringement not disputed
7,144,884	17 June 2026	Valid	Patent only challenged by Sigmapharm and Zydus. Infringement not disputed
9,101,626	15 June 2027	Validity not disputed	Patent only asserted against Lupin. Infringed
9,861,630	15 June 2027	Validity not disputed	Not infringed by Alembic, Lupin, Macleods, Sigmapharm, or Zydus
9,125,910	15 June 2027	Valid	Not infringed by Alembic, Lupin, Macleods, Sigmapharm, and Zydus
8,722,684	30 June 2031	Validity not disputed	Not infringed by Alembic, Lupin, Macleods, Sigmapharm, or Zydus
9,278,096	21 March 2032	Valid	Not infringed by the six ANDA Filers (Alembic, Lupin, Macleods, Sandoz, Sigmapharm, and Zydus)

(*) an additional six months of pediatric exclusivity is also expected for the '279, '884, '630, '684, '910, and '096 Patents, which are listed in the FDA Orange Book.

() Sandoz only challenged the '096 Patent at trial.

Appeal

The Court's decision may be appealed to U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Unless and until changed on appeal, the Court's decision stands.

About Brintellix/Trintellix

Vortioxetine was discovered by Lundbeck researchers in Copenhagen, Denmark. Depending on the market, vortioxetine is known as Trintellix® or Brintellix®. In the United States, vortioxetine is sold under the tradename Trintellix®.
