Saab at Eurosatory 2016

Defence and security company Saab is proud to attend Eurosatory in Paris, France from 13 to 17 June 2016. Saab will be present with a wide portfolio of products and systems from the Land domain.

Europe is facing ever-changing defence and security challenges, requiring a partner that can deliver innovative and intelligent systems and technology. As a true European solutions provider, Saab is committed to developing strong relationships with customers and partners in order to deliver smarter solutions, systems and products.

This year Saab will display ground-based air defence, ground combat, Giraffe 1X, AT4, training and simulation products. Saab will also be exhibiting our vehicle electronics and CBRN solutions

“We look forward to meet with all visitors interested in modern, world leading security and defence solutions within the land domain. Saab will open a new office in France this summer in order to be even closer to our partners and customers”, says Henrik Vassallo, head of Saab in France and Benelux.

Eurosatory 2016 will take place at the Paris Nord Villepinte Exhibition Centre. Welcome to visit Saab’s stand in Hall 6, stand no: J353.
