

New Group Sourcing Director at BE Group

As a part of implementing the group strategy to improved performance, Sandra Eriksson was today announced Sourcing Director for BE Group and new member of the Group Executive Management Team. Sandra is currently working within Toyota Material Handling Europe and will start her new assignment on August 15th. In the newly created position Sandra will be responsible for the Group Sourcing strategy and for coordinating the implementation.

“By acting more as a group in strategic sourcing and by this creating a stronger partnership to our preferred suppliers, we strongly believe we can create more value to our business. We are therefore glad that Sandra will join our group and we feel sure that her experience and personality will contribute to our group performing better results” - says Anders Martinsson CEO, in a comment.
