Anders Martinsson ends his assignment as President and CEO of BE Group

The current CEO of BE Group AB, Anders Martinsson, has on his own request resigned his employment to be available for other assignments. Anders will continue as CEO until mid-October 2019. The recruitment process for a replacement will start immediately.

“Anders was appointed CEO at the end of 2015 and has conducted significant structural changes and built a strong organization. When Anders now chooses to move forward in his career I would like to thank him for his efforts in the company which strongly has contributed to the last year’s improvements in profitability”, says Petter Stillström, Chairman of the Board.

Questions are referred to Petter Stillström, Chairman of the Board, +46 707 47 56 61.
