Electrolux Professional Group at HOTERES JAPAN 2025

Electrolux Professional Group is proud to be debuting products from Electrolux Professional to the Japanese market, alongside the newly acquired TOSEI at HOTERES JAPAN 2025, Tokyo's largest food service event.

TOSEI's leading food vacuum range will be demonstrated with Electrolux Professional's advanced food preparation and dishwashing solutions. New to the Japanese market is the TrinityPro – a tabletop all-in-one slicer-cutter-mixer – and the combination of dynamic preparation, vacuum packaging and Cook & Chill, together enabling optimal kitchen performance, will be in focus at the show.

“With TOSEI and Electrolux Professional branded products in one booth and the launch of dynamic preparation alongside Cook & Chill, vacuum packaging from TOSEI perfectly integrates with our products, providing a full solution to customers,” says Masamaru Takao, sales Director Japan, Business Area Food APAC & MEA.

The extensive use of vacuum packaging is popular in the Japanese market, where TOSEI holds a leading position. Today, vacuum solutions range from the vacuum sealing of clothes and foods to the transportation of goods. Saving space and preserving food are crucial for a variety of businesses.

HOTERES JAPAN 2025 runs from February 4 – 7 in Tokyo and, as one of three major hospitality exhibitions running concurrently, around 850 food service exhibitors and over 60,000 visitors are expected.
