Management Change in Electrolux Professional Group

Cecilia Swolin has been appointed General Counsel at Electrolux Professional Group. She will succeed Carolina Tendorf who, as previously announced, will leave the company.

“I am very happy to welcome Cecilia Swolin to Electrolux Professional Group. She has a strong track record of driving a transformational agenda, as well as building and developing legal functions,” says Alberto Zanata, President and CEO Electrolux Professional Group.

Cecilia Swolin, a Swedish citizen, has 20 years of experience from various senior legal company positions and law firms. She was most recently General Counsel at Northvolt, and previously held several senior legal positions at Elekta, including Head of Legal. She holds a Master of Law from the university of Gothenburg, Sweden.

Cecilia Swolin will join Electrolux Professional Group on October 1, 2025, and will take up her position as General Counsel on November 1, 2025.
