Catena continues to grow and is recruiting

One result of the growth phase in which Catena currently finds itself is that David Silvesjö has been appointed Financial Controller for the company and Annie Nyblom as Communications Manager. Both roles have been newly established and are strategically important Group-wide functions contributing to Catena's continued journey.

As a Financial Controller, David's focus will be on issues of financing, due diligence processes and IR. He joins Catena from a role as Finance Manager at Heimstaden AB and, prior to that, has a varied background in the banking/investment banking sector. Annie has a broad background in communications at companies including Studentlitteratur and Helsingborgshem. Her role at Catena encompasses communications, IR and marketing.

"As we expand, interest from investors in efficient logistics properties that support new trade patterns is increasing constantly. With Annie and David on board, we are better able to meet their needs and further clarify our offering for both existing and future shareholders and customers," says Catena's CEO Benny Thögersen.
