New Regional Manager at Catena

Catena's property operations are organised into five regions, safeguarding their proximity to customers and local players. Jonas Arvidsson has now been appointed as the new Regional Manager for the Gothenburg and Jönköping regions.

Jonas Arvidsson will take over as Catena's new Regional Manager, responsible for the Gothenburg and Jönköping regions, on 3 September 2020. Jonas joins Catena from DHL Nordic where he was regional manager for logistics properties and responsible for analysis and development of existing properties, as well as for projects and new production. Prior to that, Jonas has held leading positions in which he has headed major logistics projects within DHL Supply Chain.

"Jonas's in-depth knowledge of logistics and experience of working with closely involved stakeholders in business and society to facilitate the establishment and development of properties are unbeatable assets for Catena and its customers," says Catena's Head of Business and Property, Jörgen Eriksson.

Catena has a high level of activity in both the Gothenburg and Jönköping regions, in which some of Sweden's most attractive logistics locations are situated.
