Catena leases premises to Instabox in both Umeå and Sundsvall

Delivery company Instabox is currently moving into two Catena facilities, one in Umeå and the other in Sundsvall.

Instabox is a shipping service for express deliveries of e-commerce goods offered via select online stores – delivering primarily to “smart boxes”. The company is expanding in Sweden and has signed a three-year agreement with Catena to lease approximately 500 square metres of logistics space of in the Mätaren 6 property in Umeå and approximately 740 square metres in the Sköns Prästbord 2:4 property, which is located in Sundsvall. The facilities form part of Instabox’s expansion currently being conducted in the north of Sweden.

“We are delighted to be setting up operations in Sundsvall and Umeå – this is a key stage of our expansion in northern Sweden. These purpose-designed premises, located in two highly attractive logistics locations, suit us perfectly,” says Carl-Johan Ekholm, Project Manager at Instabox.

“Their innovative approach to sustainable deliveries and their ambitious plans to provide smart boxes throughout Sweden make Instabox an exciting tenant. We look forward to our continued partnership and being able to follow their progress,” says Johan Svedin, Real Estate Manager at Catena.

Instabox will move into its new premises in October 2020.
