Manne Aronsson new Manager for NCC Property Development in Norway

NCC has assigned Manne Aronsson to assume the position as new Manager for PD in Norway. He will assume his position on January 20, 2014.

“I am very much looking forward to continue to develop the business for NCC Property Development in Norway. My ambition is to strengthen our market presence even further on a long-term basis”, says Manne Aronsson, Manager for NCC Property Development in Norway.

Manne Aronsson has been working for NCC since 2000. He is currently acting Manager for NCC Property Development in Sweden, and previously held the position as Regional Manager for the Southern region of Sweden.

Manne Aronsson has acquired a vast experience in property development within the commercial property segments; office, retail and logistics. He is particularly passionate about generating business, leadership issues and building strong relationships with important stakeholders. In his new position, Manne Aronsson will be a member of the Management Team for the NCC Property Development business area.

“Norway is an important market for NCC Property Development, and we have exciting projects both in Oslo and Stavanger. With his long experience, strong business acumen and great track record in leadership, I am convinced that Manne will make a strong contribution to the business achievements in Norway,” says Carola Lavén, Business Area Manager, NCC Property Development.
