

Norwegian Competition Authority considers to temporarily prohibiting the implementation of the cooperation agreement between ICA and Norgesgruppen

Solna, 30 November 2012

Today, the Norwegian Competition Authority issued a notification in which it was stated that the Norwegian Competition Authority is considering prohibiting the implementation of the cooperation agreement between ICA and Norgesgruppen.

This is just a notification and not a formal decision that right now poses an obstacle to the ongoing implementation.

ICA's view is, and has been, that our cooperation agreement with Norgesgruppen is in compliance with relevant competition legislation.

ICA has until March 8, 2013, to respond to the notification.

The ICA Group (ICAAB) is one of the Nordic region's leading retail companies, with around 2,100 of its own and retailer-owned stores in Sweden, Norway and the three Baltic states. The Group includes retail companies ICA Sweden, ICA Norway and Rimi Baltic; ICA Real Estate, which owns and manages properties; and ICA Bank, which offers financial services to Swedish customers. ICAAB is a joint venture 40% owned by Hakon Invest AB and 60% by Royal Ahold N.V. of the Netherlands. According to a shareholder agreement, Royal Ahold and Hakon Invest jointly share controlling influence over ICAAB. Through Royal Ahold, ICAAB is part of an international retail network.
