

Diös wins EPRA Gold Most Improved sBPR Award 2017

Diös has won EPRA Gold Most Improved sBPR Award 2017 for its sustainability reporting following EPRA's Best Practice Recommendation on Sustainability Reporting. The award was announced yesterday at the EPRA 2017 conference, which this year took place in London.

EPRA, the European Public Real Estate Association, is the voice of the publicly traded European real estate sector. EPRA's mission is to promote, develop and represent the European public real estate sector. This will be achieved through the provision of better information to investors and stakeholders, active involvement in the public and political debate, improvement of the general operating environment, promotion of best practices and the cohesion and strengthening of the industry.

- We have taken great steps for reporting on our sustainability efforts for 2016 and it is very enjoyable that we receive this award. Sustainable business in all areas, which generates long-term profitability that takes responsibility for both human and environment, is a key to success. We are convinced that our strategy of sustainable urban development is going to drive growth for our stakeholders, our cities, and not least for ourselves, says Kristina Grahn-Persson, Director of Business Support, Diös Fastigheter.
