The destination celebrates the return of live entertainment as Las Vegas reopens to 100 percent capacity. On June 1, Clark County, which includes the Las Vegas metropolitan area, returned to pre-pandemic guidelines, removing all restrictions involving capacity limits, large gatherings and more. "Las Vegas is a city built on hospitality and entertainment, and we are thrilled to welcome visitors back from around the country," said Kate Wik, chief marketing officer for the LVCVA. At the moment tourists from the most foreign countries can't enter the US but Las Vegas is ready to welcome tourists from Europe when all the travel restrictions from the US Government will be removed. Every year Las Vegas presents exciting novelties to its guests from all over the world. Thrilling shows and concerts with world-famous superstars, fantastically staged hotels and the latest food trends are as much a part of Las Vegas as the glittering lights of the Strip. And here is a brief overview of what Las Vegas visitors can look forward to:

Resorts World Las Vegas, the Strip's highly anticipated new resort, officially opened its doors to the public on June 24.

Resorts World has 3,500 guestrooms and suites under three Hilton brands, including Conrad and Crockfords; more than 40 restaurants and bars; and a 5,000-seat theater. The $ 4,3 billion property offers a lot to its guests and visitors. DJs Zedd and Tiesto will play at Zouk Nightclub, while Celine Dion, Katy Perry, Carrie Underwood and Luke Bryan have signed on as resident artists.

Marigold officially opened at Resorts World Las Vegas, treating guests to a lineup of classic American staples in a retro space inspired by the iconography of vintage Las Vegas and Palm Springs. The concept, which was developed by Las Vegas-based Gen3 Hospitality, also features a sister concept called Goldies, which will offer homemade treats such as cookies and pies as well as grab-and-go breakfast and lunch options.

Resorts World Las Vegas announced it will debut the first and only pop-up shop of Kardashian Kloset, the Kardashian-Jenner e-commerce retail resale site. The popular online retailer features items from the family's personal closets and offers a wide range of designer clothing from athleisure to black tie, plus shoes, accessories and jewelry. This will be Kardashians Kloset's first physical location and will offer one-of-a-kind items not available online.

Vegas becomes greener - MGM Resorts Launches 100MW Solar Array

MGM Resorts International, a global leader in the battle against climate change, recently launched its 100-megawatt solar array, the hospitality industry's largest directly sourced renewable electricity project worldwide. The array's clean energy now produces up to 90% of MGM Resorts' Las Vegas daytime power needs, spanning 65 million square feet of buildings across 13 properties and more than 36,000 rooms on the Las Vegas Strip, including Bellagio, ARIA, Mandalay Bay, MGM Grand and The Mirage, among others. The solar installation consists of 323,000 panels and its annual generation will be equivalent to the power usage of about 27,000 average US homes. For more information click here.
