

Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines - Extending pause of cruise operations

Reference is made to the stock exchange announcement of 13 March 2020 regarding Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines ("FOCL") announcing a pause of its cruise operations until 23 May 2020.

With the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, FOCL will prolong the restart of the cruise and river operations beyond 23 May until further notice. The company takes advice and follows guidelines from the relevant authorities, including the UK Government and Public Health England, as well as overseas policies.

The economic impact of these effects will be communicated as appropriate in Bonheur ASA's future financial reporting.
