

Truecaller Premium Now Available to Tigo Customers in Chile

Stockholm, October 13, 2026: Truecaller, the leading global platform for verifying contacts and blocking unwanted communication, today announced a partnership with Tigo Chile, one of the country's largest mobile operators and part of the Millicom group.

Fraud attempts and telemarketing calls have grown steadily in Chile. Truecaller Premium gives Tigo subscribers a clearer view of who is on the line and more control over what reaches them.

Premium covers real-time detection of fraud and spam, with automatic blocking of nuisance calls and suspicious messages. Users can see who has viewed their profile, browse other profiles privately in incognito mode, and request contact details from other members of the Truecaller network. The app runs without ads, and a Premium badge appears on the user's public profile.

"Teaming up with Tigo enables us to expand our protection network to millions of mobile connections throughout Chile," says Xavier Trouvé, VP Product Premium at Truecaller. "Together, we are making everyday phone interactions clearer, safer, and far more dependable."

"Integrating Truecaller's industry-leading safety tools into our service lineup directly supports our promise to offer a trustworthy and responsive mobile environment," says Andres Darmograj, Customer Growth & Data Strategy

Manager at Tigo Chile. "We remain focused on giving our user base modern mobile solutions that provide genuine peace of mind and effortless communication."

The service is delivered to Tigo through Cykadas, Truecaller's commercial partner in the Latin American region.
