MilDef wins order worth SEK 69 million for delivery of tactical IT to Swedish customer

In connection with the delivery of replacement technology and modernization of a Swedish defense system, MilDef has been entrusted to deliver rugged computers, switches and displays. The order value amounts to SEK 69 million with deliveries in 2023-2025.

MilDef's agreement with a partner in the defense industry concerns the development and delivery of products for tactical communication and enhanced cyber defense. The collaboration involves development work and delivery of a large volume of hardware units. The modernization of the current defense system concerns replacing older technology with MilDef's products, as part of the system's capability increase. Each system is equipped with several 19/2 computers, switches, panel PCs and ruggedized laptops.

"MilDef and many other defense companies are stepping up their cooperation. This collaboration combines two Swedish defense companies that are specialists in their respective fields. MilDef is trusted to contribute with our cutting-edge expertise; to deliver future-proof IT systems that strengthen the protection of our society," says Björn Karlsson, CEO MilDef Group.

For reasons of confidentiality and national security, the customer's name may not be published.
