MSAB appoints Tony Forsgren as new CFO

MSAB, a world leader in mobile forensics, today announces that Tony Forsgren has been appointed the position of Chief Financial Officer from January 9, 2023. Until then Mathilda Allert will continue as interim CFO and as part of the management team.

Tony Forsgren has extensive experience of leading positions within Finance, in private as well as in publicly listed companies. Tony is currently head of Business Control at Green Cargo and has vast experience of working in international companies. He has played an important role in making M&A's successful in his previous positions.

"We are pleased to welcome Tony to our management team as our new CFO. Tony has an excellent record in Finance, as well as Business Development, which will be of great value for MSAB. Tony's experience will also benefit us, as we see an increasing demand for MSAB offerings globally. I am very much looking forward to working closely with Tony to execute our growth strategy", says Joel Bollö, CEO of MSAB.

"I am very excited to join MSAB to support and develop the company and its business. It will be an honor being a part of making the world a safer place, as well as working in a fast moving and growing international business" says Tony Forsgren".
