Eevia has decided to cancel the agreement to sell intellectual property (IP) related to its lead eye-health compound to Havu Health Oy for KEUR 800 subject to non-conformance with conditions for sale. The IP is clawed back. The condition was that Havu Health would either pay for the IP or convert the payable into shares in Havu Health Oy, making Eevia Health the dominant owner. Either did not materialize. The sale of the intellectual property is therefore cancelled and the IP clawed back to Eevia ownership again.
