Sandvik wins SEK 350 million mining equipment order in Australia

Sandvik has received a major equipment order from the Australia-based mining contractor Barmenco, to be deployed at the Bellevue Gold Project in Western Australia. The order is valued at approximately SEK 350 million and was booked in the second quarter of 2026.

The order includes underground loaders, trucks and drill rigs, with deliveries expected to begin in the third quarter of 2026 and continue through the first quarter of 2027. Sandvik will also provide rock tools and parts and services.

"We are pleased to further strengthen our longstanding partnership with Barmenco through this order and look forward to supporting the ramp up of the Bellevue Gold Project with our leading mining solutions," says Mats Eriksson, President of business area Mining at Sandvik.

The Bellevue Gold Project is owned by Bellevue Gold Limited and is one of Australia's highest-grade gold mines.
