Sandvik completes the acquisition of filter press manufacturer Diemme® Filtration

Stockholm, September 1, 2026
Sandvik AB

Sandvik has completed the previously announced acquisition of the Italy-based company Diemme® Filtration, a leading provider of filtration and dewatering solutions for the global mining industry, with a leading position in high-performance filter presses. The company will be reported as a separate new division, Filtration, within business area Rock Processing.

The company is headquartered in Lugo, Italy, with a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility and R&D capabilities. It has approximately 200 employees and a diversified global customer base across copper, gold, nickel, and battery-materials mining. Revenues for 2026 are estimated to be about SEK 1.1 billion and with an EBITA margin accretive to business area Rock Processing.
