

Hyon AS – UPDATE – Received offers and cancellation of EGM

Drammen, Norway, 14 September 2023 – Hyon AS (HYON) ("Company") announces that its Board of Directors (the "Board") has resolved to cancel the extraordinary general meeting scheduled to be held on 15 September 2023 (the "EGM") following receipt of offers on combination with privately held companies.

Reference is made to the Company's announcement on 30 August 2023 regarding close of its strategic review process and the Board's proposal to dissolve the Company as well as the announcement on 11 September 2023 regarding received indications of interest in combination transactions with the Company.

Further to the previously announced information, the Company has now received firm interest from third parties that have suggested terms for reverse takeover transactions with issuance of new shares by the Company. The Board has assessed the received offers and believes that it is possible to reach agreement on a transaction that is more beneficial to its shareholders than a solvent dissolution.

As a result, the Board has resolved to cancel the EGM.

The potential transactions are indicated to provide for a minority holding for current shareholders of Hyon. Through the proposed transactions, Hyon's core business will be changed to markets unrelated to its current business, and its current business and technology are expected to be discontinued and/or potentially realised to maximise shareholders' value. Valuation of Hyon remains subject to further discussion but is indicated by the interested parties inter alia based on access to capital markets and a trading platform on Euronext Growth Oslo.

The Company will continue discussions with the interested parties to assess the received offers, with an aim to present one agreed proposal on a transaction for the general meeting in due course. Although offers have been received, the Company emphasizes that discussions are still ongoing, and that no assurances can be given as to the outcome, timing, or the signing of any definite agreements. The Company does not intend to make any further public comment regarding the process until it has been completed or the Company determines that disclosure is required or appropriate.

Forward-looking statements

Matters discussed in this announcement may constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts and may be identified by words such as "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "strategy", "intends", "estimate", "will", "may", "continue", "should" and similar expressions. The forward-looking statements in this release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions. Although the Company believe that these assumptions were reasonable when made, these assumptions are inherently subject to significant known and unknown risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond their control. Actual events may differ significantly from any anticipated development due to a number of factors, including without limitation, changes in public sector investment levels, changes in the general economic, political and market conditions in the markets in which the Company operates, the Company's ability to attract, retain and motivate qualified personnel, changes in the Company's ability to engage in commercially acceptable acquisitions and strategic investments, and changes in laws and regulation and the potential impact of legal proceedings and actions. Such risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors could cause actual events to differ materially from the expectations expressed or implied in this release by such forward-looking statements. The Company does not make any guarantee that the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements in this announcement are free from errors nor does it accept any responsibility for the future accuracy of the opinions expressed in this announcement or any obligation to update or revise the statements in this announcement to reflect subsequent events. You should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements in this announcement.

The information, opinions and forward-looking statements contained in this announcement speak only as at its date, and are subject to change without notice. The Company does not undertake any obligation to review, update, confirm, or to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that arise in relation to the content of this announcement.

This announcement is for information purposes only and is not to be relied upon in substitution for the exercise of independent judgment.
