

Alleima appoints Christian Swartling as new General Counsel

Alleima has appointed Christian Swartling as Executive Vice President and General Counsel, effective January 19, 2026.

Christian Swartling, born in 1974, currently holds the position Senior Vice President Group Legal at Stora Enso, and will be a member of the Alleima Group Executive Management.

“Christian has a strong foundation in industrial law and corporate governance. He brings deep expertise in navigating complex regulatory environments, managing international transactions, and supporting strategic initiatives across manufacturing and sustainability-driven sectors. His background from an international industrial company and his profound knowledge of working for companies that are listed on the stock exchange, makes him a great fit for the role. I am confident he will be a strong addition to the Group Executive Management,” says Göran Björkman, President and CEO of Alleima.
